

2024 Election Cycle: Myths vs. Facts

MYTHS

FACTS

Myth #1

The Secretary of State could cancel the Republican Presidential Preference Primary if he wanted to.

Fact #1

No, the Presidential Preference Primary (PPP) is required by Nevada law (NRS 293.650). Several Republican candidates filed to appear on the PPP ballot, making it necessary for the state to hold a Republican PPP.

Myth #2

The Secretary of State kept former President Trump off the ballot.

Fact #2

Former President Trump did not file for the Presidential Preference Primary, which is why he is not on the ballot. Trump elected to participate in the NVGOP-run caucus. The Secretary of State's Office is not affiliated with the caucus and cannot provide information about it.

Myth #3

The Presidential Preference Primary is a waste of time and money.

Fact #3

Every election is important and showcases the will of the people. The Presidential Preference Primary gives voters across Nevada several opportunities to make their voices heard, including voting by mail and voting in-person during Early Voting and on Election Day. It's also a reminder for Nevadans to update their voter registrations before the June & November elections, improving the accuracy of our voter rolls.

2024 Election Cycle: Myths vs. Facts

MYTHS

FACTS

Myth #4

State law barred candidates from participating in both the Presidential Preference Primary and the NVGOP-run caucus.

Fact #4

The Presidential Preference Primary is an election regulated by state & federal law; the caucus is not. The Secretary of State's Office has no involvement in the caucus. Any candidate, regardless of involvement in the caucus, had the opportunity to file for candidacy for the Presidential Preference Primary.

Myth #5

Voters must vote in all three elections in 2024 or else their voter registrations will be canceled.

Fact #5

State and federal law prohibits inactivation of a voter's registration due to a "failure to vote."

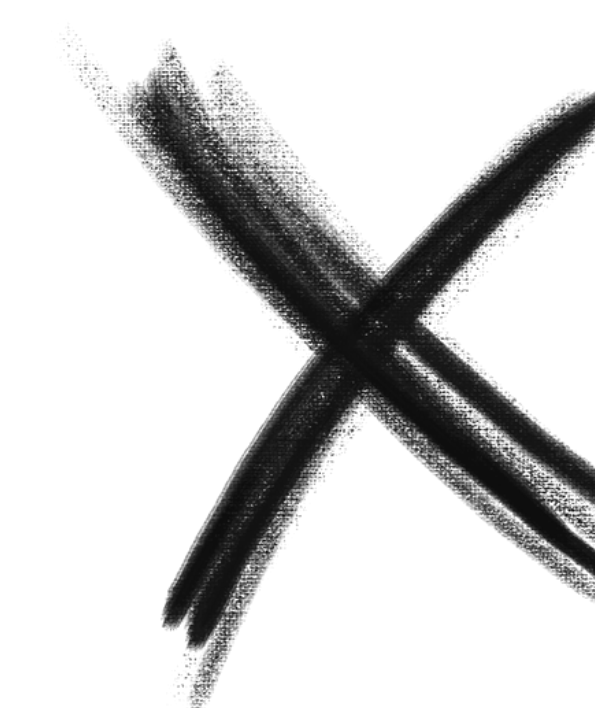

Myth #6

If you don't vote in the Presidential Preference Primary, your voter registration will be canceled.

Fact #6

No. Active registered voters who do not vote in the election will remain active registered voters.

Myth #7

I cannot change my party affiliation during the Presidential Preference Primary.

Fact #7

Nevada law allows for same-day registration and changing of party registration up until the close of polls.

2024 Election Cycle: Myths vs. Facts

MYTHS

FACTS

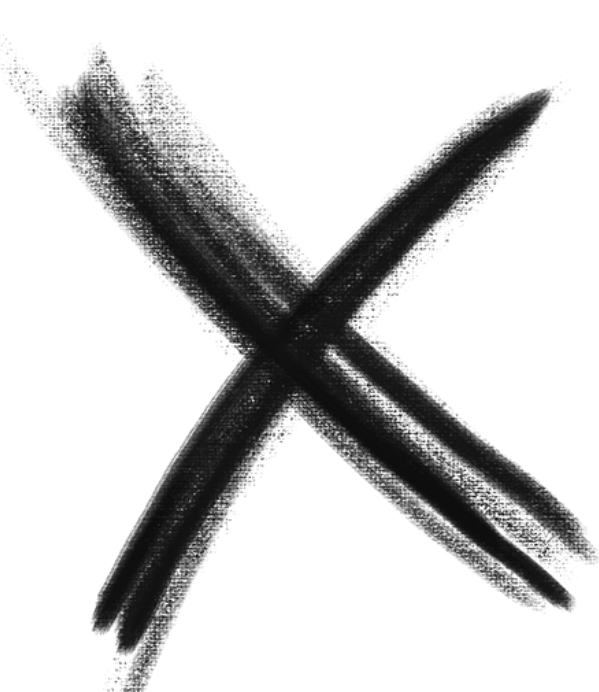

Myth #8

Nevada isn't doing enough to prevent voter fraud.

Fact #8

There are safeguards in place in every step of the electoral process to prevent voter fraud. The Secretary of State's Office implemented procedures to ensure election security and investigates every report of potential election fraud. Nevadans can report potential violations of elections law here.

Myth #9

Nevada's elections aren't secure.

Fact #9

Nevada's elections are some of the most secure and accessible elections in the country. There is no evidence of widespread fraud in Nevada's history.

Myth #10

I was formerly incarcerated, so I cannot vote in Nevada's elections.

Fact #10

Any Nevada resident who was convicted of a felony has their right to vote immediately restored upon release from prison.
