

EXPLANATION: Matter in bolded italics is new.

The People of the State of Nevada do enact as follows:

Section 1: Article 15 of the Nevada Constitution is hereby amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

- 1. The Legislature shall not enact a law or otherwise adopt, enforce or endorse a policy which prohibits, limits or discourages cooperation with the enforcement of the immigration laws of the United States.
- 2. A board of county commissioners shall not enact an ordinance or otherwise adopt, enforce, or endorse a policy which prohibits, limits or discourages cooperation with the enforcement of the immigration laws of the United States.
- 3. The governing body of a city shall not enact an ordinance or otherwise adopt, enforce or endorse a policy which prohibits, limits or discourages cooperation with the enforcement of the immigration laws of the United States.

DESCRIPTION OF EFFECT

The measure would preclude the establishment of sanctuary jurisdictions. A sanctuary jurisdiction is one in which the governmental authorities refuse to cooperate with the federal government in the enforcement of federal immigration laws. Currently, local governments are not legally required to expend their own resources to enforce federal immigration laws.

This measure will add a new section to the Nevada Constitution that will prohibit the legislature and local governments from enacting laws, ordinances or otherwise adopting, enforcing or endorsing policies that prohibit, limit, or discourage cooperation with the enforcement of the immigration laws of the United States. The immigration laws of the United States are set forth in various federal codes, regulations, treaties, and agreements.

This initiative, additionally, will have the effect of limiting local government power to address matters of local concern, including policing, public safety, health education, and general welfare to the extent they would impact the enforcement of federal immigration laws.

Because federal immigration law encompasses many topics, including social security benefits, student-visas, and removal, this initiative may significantly limit the power of local governments to implement and carry out local priorities, policies, and programs.
