The Nevada Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on Participatory Democracy (ACPD) prepared this Guide to Elections to promote participation in our democratic processes. It consists of twelve modules, each designed to provide a detailed overview of a subject vital to understanding elections and the political processes in Nevada. Our intent is that the information will allow you to participate at whatever level you determine is your personal comfort level. Whether you are new to Nevada, a life-long resident, a student, or a business owner, we hope you will find this Guide and its modules not only informative, but useful.

Modules cover the following:
